AFFIDAVIT

Now comes Raymond Pasterczyk, being First duly sworn according to law, and states the following:

1. I am a friend of Stanley E. Jalowiec. I testified as a character witness for Stanley during the mitigation phase of Stanley's trial.

2. On January 18, 1994 I paged Stanley at 5:32p.m. from my home, Stanley then called me at approximately 5:40p.m. at which time he advised me that he had just got up and was about to shower I then advised him that I was going to come out to pick him up because I needed some help around the house with some house work, I then picked Stanley Jalowiec up at his apartment on Court Street in Elyria, Ohio at 6:30p.m..

3. Stanley Jalowiec and I went to my house in Rocky River, Cuyahoga County Cleveland, Ohio, we arrived there (my House) at approximately 7:15p.m. - 7:20p.m.

4. Stanley cleaned my basement floor, and did other house work because I was preparing for a birthday gathering for myself, I also washed Stanley's laundry at this time, it took several hours to do the work needed to be done taking us to about 9:00p.m..

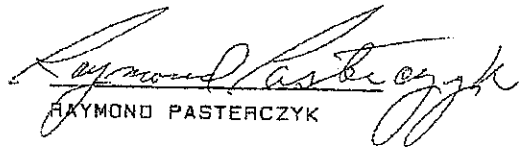

5. When Stanley was done with the house work he had showered while I prepared dinner for Stanley and myself which was finished at approximately 9:40p.m., Stanley and I ate dinner and after dinner at approximately 10:20p.m. we then gathered the things he needed to take home with him.

6. At approximately 10:50p.m. I dropped Stanley and his clothing off at his apartment, Stanley took his clothing up to his apartment and returned to the car where I then dropped Stanley off at a bar called Power Slams, I then left and went home.

7. I would have testified to such facts at the trial had Stanley's trial Attorney or investigator contacted me or return my telephone calls made to them during Stanley's pre-trial incarceration.
